

2022-2023 Financial Aid Application Virtual Workshops

Professionals will help you complete the 2022-2023 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or the Alternative Application for Illinois Financial Aid (RISE Act).

Virtual workshops dates:

Oct. 5, 12, 20, 27 · Nov. 3, 17 · Dec. 1

4 to 6 p.m.

RISE Act

Undocumented students who are Illinois residents can now take advantage of the Alternative Application for Illinois Financial Aid. The RISE (Retaining Illinois Students and Equity) Act allows these students to apply for MAP grants (isac.org/alternativeapp).

Important! Before you attend a virtual workshop:

- Watch financial aid help videos at jjc.edu/financialaid.
- Create a FSA ID for you and a parent (FAFSA only). Instructions available at StudentAid.gov.
- Complete and save as much of your application as possible.
- Have student's 2020 federal income tax forms and W2 forms available.
- Have parent's 2020 federal income tax forms and W2 forms available.
- All other 2020 income and asset (records of bank statements, investments, untaxed income, etc.) documentation for student and parent(s).
